10
11 Joint School District No. 2, Meridian, Idaho, strives to maximize educational opportunities
12 throughout the district. The district also is committed to provide equitable programs
13 across the district. To encourage and promote innovation and to meet individual needs, the 14 district will provide a mechanism for principals and supervisors to obtain approval to 15 operate schools under board approved exceptions to district policies, rules, regulations,
16 and guidelines.

18 PROCEDURES:

19
20 All exceptions must conform to state and federal laws, rules and regulations. All exceptions
21 must be justified in a manner that clearly indicates that exceptions are in the best interests
22 of the students. All exceptions must be approved by the district's board of trustees.

24 Exception requests will be first considered by the regional directors or the assistant
25 superintendent and will receive a recommendation from the superintendent of schools.

26
27 All applications for exceptions to board policies, rules, regulations, and practices will 28 include a rationale, communication plan, implementation strategy, and measures that 29 assure accountability.
